The Arts of Recycling and Recuperation (1995)	Allen Roberts	Set of 20 slides, each with informative detailed captions, prepared by University of Iowa Professor of Art and Art History Allen Roberts. The slides illustrate the wide variety of African objects made by recycling and recuperating that which has been used or discarded-musical instruments, children's push-toys, beautiful jewelry and haircombs, religious objects, tools, trunks, and kerosene lamps. Also includes reprints of two articles by Professor Roberts on African recycling arts, "Redefining the 'Artisan': Traditional Technicians in Changing Societies" and "Chance Encounters, Ironic Collage." (University of Iowa Center for International and Comparative Studies, 20 slides / 28 pp notebook)	Grades 6-12, Teacher resource
Images of Africa in the U.S. (1980)	Charles Guthrie	This slide presentation and accompanying program guide is designed to help audiences explore the myths and stereotypes that Americans have about Africa. Although much of the material is dated, this remains a useful resource. (Center for African Studies, University of Florida, 40 slides / 23 pp book)	Grades 6-12
Slides on West African Textiles (1995)	Miranda Akyea and Kathryn Tour	Set of 27 slides, reproduced from the book Tissus d'Afrique, with explanatory text prepared by Miranda Akyea, a Ghanaian artist and teacher, and Kathryn Tour, from Ivory Coast, Coordinator of Outreach and Instruction at the University of Iowa's Center for International and Comparative Studies. The slides, taken in Togo, are representative of textile traditions and dress practices in other West African countries. The slide set shows pictures of women cloth traders, the distinctive factory-print textile known as "African print cloth," and the stylish dress designs contemporary West African women have sewn in this cloth. Four of the slides show two handmade West African textiles: tie-dyes and stripwoven kente cloth. (University of Iowa Center for	Grades 3-12, Teacher resource
