THE FUTURE OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS

The Center on American and Global Security and the India Studies Program have invited four of the world's leading experts on nuclear weapons to discuss "The Future of Nuclear Weapons." Join Professor Robert Jervis (Columbia University), Professor John Mearsheimer (University of Chicago), Steven Schwartz (Editor, Nonproliferation Review), and Gideon Rose (Managing Editor, Foreign Affairs) in analyzing the prospects for a "nuclear free world" versus the likelihood of further proliferation of nuclear weapons.
