

Lectures Sponsored by the Department of Classical Studies 2011-12

Fall 2011

Carla Antonaccio, Duke University
September 15, Woodburn Hall 004
4:30 pm

“At home in the ‘Middle Ground’: Sicily in its colonial era”

Ann Vasaly, Boston University
October 6, Ballantine Hall 004
4:30 pm

“Literary ‘Archaeologies’ of Ancient Rome: Livy and his Predecessors”

Peter Hunt, University of Colorado
October 20, Ballantine Hall 004
4:30 pm

“Realism and Reciprocity in Demosthenes.”

Dan Osland, Indiana University
November 3, Fine Arts 102
4:30 pm

“Augusta Emerita in Late Antiquity: The ‘De-Romanization’ of a Roman Provincial Capital.”

Amanda Regan, Indiana University
November 17, Ballantine Hall 004
4:30 pm

“Apollonius’ Kings”

Spring 2012

Betty Rose Nagle, Indiana University
January 26, Ballantine Hall 004
4:30 pm

“Yorick’s Brethren: Translating a Neo-Latin Scientific Treatise”

Gareth Williams, Columbia University
April 19, Ballantine Hall 004
4:30 pm

“Magic, Mayhem and Moreness: Ovid’s Medea in Metamorphoses 7”

Barbara Kowalzig, New York University
April 26, School of Education, Wendell W. Wright Education Building 1204
4:30 pm

“Cross-cultural Connectivity cum grano salis: Religion and Trade beyond the Pillars of Herakles”