1) Undergraduate Transfer: This program awards scholarships worth up to $30,000 each to students and recent alumni from community colleges or two-year institutions who will be pursuing a bachelor's degrees at four-year institutions.

2) Young Scholars: Through this Program, the Foundation selects high-achieving youth with financial need and provides them throughout high school with individualized educational opportunities and support that will enable them to develop their talents and abilities.

3) September 11: In 2001, the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation set aside $1 million to provide need-based scholarships for spouses and dependents of victims of September 11th or the 2001 anthrax attacks. As the Foundation has expended all the funds for this program, no additional scholarships will be awarded. Please refer to other programs, such as the Families of Freedom Scholarship fund

(www.familiesoffreedom.org) or the September 11th Scholarship Alliance

(www.scholarships911.org), to search for other scholarships for which you may be eligible.
