Submit the bottom portion to your instructor, by the end of week 1. Retain this portion for your records.

FRENCH F200 PLEDGE OF HONOR Initials: _________

I understand that all work in F200, whether written or oral, submitted on paper or online, must be strictly my own.

1. I understand that copying the written work of another student or the Cinéphile Workbook answer key is considered cheating.
2. I understand that asking a tutor or friend to read and correct my work before it is submitted to my instructor is considered cheating.
3. I understand that the use of any interactive computer program such as online translators or translation programs (including those in word processing proofing tools) is cheating.
4. I understand that I must properly cite any printed or online text I quote, in whole or in part (see the MLA Style Manual or the Chicago Manual of Style for guidelines), and that my failure to do so will be considered plagiarism.
5. I understand that the reasonable use of dictionaries and grammars (paper or electronic) is permitted, but that using these tools extensively is not recommended.
6. I understand that failure to adhere to the above guidelines will be considered cheating or plagiarism, and will be dealt with according to Indiana University's guidelines for academic misconduct (details at http://www.iu.edu/~code)
7. If my instructor deems that my work is not my own, I understand that I will minimally receive a grade of '0' on the assignment in question, and that the sanction may be harsher at the course supervisor's discretion. In addition, a written report of the incident will be submitted to the Dean in the Office of Students Ethics and will become a permanent part of my academic record at Indiana University.

I have read the above and pledge to comply with the standards for academic honesty and integrity as they are outlined herein.

---✂-----✂-----✂-----✂-----✂-----✂-----✂-----✂-----✂-----✂-----✂-----✂-----✂-----✂-----✂-----✂-----✂-----✂

FRENCH F200 PLEDGE OF HONOR

I understand that all work in F200, whether written or oral, submitted on paper or online, must be strictly my own.

1. I understand that copying the written work of another student or the Cinéphile Workbook answer key is considered cheating.
2. I understand that asking a tutor or friend to read and correct my work before it is submitted to my instructor is considered cheating.
3. I understand that the use of any interactive computer program such as online translators or translation programs (including those in word processing proofing tools) is cheating.
4. I understand that I must properly cite any printed or online text I quote, in whole or in part (see the MLA Style Manual or the Chicago Manual of Style for guidelines), and that my failure to do so will be considered plagiarism.
5. I understand that the reasonable use of dictionaries and grammars (paper or electronic) is permitted, but that using these tools extensively is not recommended.
6. I understand that failure to adhere to the above guidelines will be considered cheating or plagiarism, and will be dealt with according to Indiana University's guidelines for academic misconduct (details at http://www.iu.edu/~code)
7. If my instructor deems that my work is not my own, I understand that I will minimally receive a grade of '0' on the assignment in question, and that the sanction may be harsher at the course supervisor's discretion. In addition, a written report of the incident will be submitted to the Dean in the Office of Students Ethics and will become a permanent part of my academic record at Indiana University.

I have read the above and pledge to comply with the standards for academic honesty and integrity as they are outlined herein.

Signed: ____ Date: _________________________

Print name: ____ Section #: ______________________