

German Campus Weeks

15 Sept - 27 Oct

dodeutsch.com

Germanic Studies is teaming up with the German Embassy to promote German as a foreign language. During the 2011 do Deutsch Campus Weeks, German-language students and faculty will organize a series of activities and events in a bid to boost widespread interest in German language and culture among their peers.

Events

- German film showings with English subtitles. Open to the public. See website below for titles, times and locations
- German game night with prizes for winners. For speakers and non-speakers. 12 October 7:30-8:30pm in Ballantine Hall 008

Competitions - "German(y) in your life"

Open to all IU students. Campus winner projects will be submitted to the Embassy for the national competition and a chance to win a trip to Berlin. Students not enrolled in a specific course, who wish to submit a project, need to contact the Project Manager below for more information.

- G100, 105 & 150 - Poster presentation: States and Cantons of Germany, Austria & Switzerland
- G200 & 250 - Video presentation
- G300 & 330 - Essay (in German + English translation)
- G400 - Poem or Song

Expo Gala

Opening Reception on 18 October 7-9pm in IU Art Museum. Winning competition projects will be displayed and awards presented. Expo will remain on display until 27 October.

For more information please email tbyler@indiana.edu
Troy Byler, Project Manager in charge of media and PR.

www.iub.edu/~germanic

Embassy
of the Federal Republic of Germany
Washington

