

GPSO Travel Awards Application Spring 2012

1. Important Information Regarding this Application

This is the GPSO Travel Award application for Spring 2012.

To be eligible for this award:

1. You must be a full-time graduate or professional student at Indiana University Bloomington. You must be enrolled in 8 or more credit hours, a Student Academic Appointee enrolled in 6 or more credit hours, or enrolled in dissertation hours (e.g. G901).
2. Your travel must take place between January 1, 2012 and June 30, 2012.
3. You must not be a member of the GPSO Executive Committee, employee of the GPSO, or an active member of the GPSO Awards Committee reviewing applications for this award.

Once you begin this application you may not be able to save and come back to make changes. A pdf preview of the application is available at the GPSO website at <http://www.iu.edu/~gpso/travel-award.php>. Please have the following ready before you begin this application:

1. Detailed information on the conference, workshop, training, competition, or audition you plan to attend
2. Why your attendance is important
3. A detailed budget of your expenses

Completed applications are due on February 19, 2012. Late applications will not be accepted.

GPSO Travel Awards are awarded as university fellowships so you should be aware of your total financial aid need and the amount of financial aid you have already received. If you have already reached your financial aid maximum for the current semester, you may be ineligible for this award. More information about financial aid need can be found at <http://www.indiana.edu/~sfa/receiving/need.html> and information about how much aid you have already received can be found in OneStart.

If you are selected as a winner for this award:

1. You will be asked to submit receipts or other evidence of your travel for our records.
2. Your name may be published in various GPSO materials, including our website and marketing materials announcing the names and departments of award winners
3. You may be asked to present your work at a GPSO event or conference.

*1. By checking the box below, you agree that you have read and understand the above information regarding this travel award application and are eligible for this award.

- I have read and understand the above information regarding this award application and I am eligible for this award.

2. Personal Information

2. Title:

- Mr
- Ms
- Mrs

3. First name:

GPSO Travel Awards Application Spring 2012

4. Last name:

5. E-mail:

6. IU Student ID number (instructions to look up your ID number are at <http://registrar.indiana.edu/univerid.shtml>)

*7. General program of study:

8. Specific program name, if needed (e.g. Ecology and Evolutionary Biology, Language Education, Woodwind Instruments)

9. Place in program:

- Master's student
- Doctoral student
- Professional student

10. If you are a doctoral student, please indicate your current status:

- Pre-exam
- Post-exam

11. Are you currently enrolled in G901 or a dissertation or research credit hour?

- No
- Yes

3. Event Information

12. Event (conference, workshop, training, etc.) Title:

13. Location of Event:

City

State / Province

Country

14. Date on which event begins:

Date

Month  Day

4. Free Response Questions

- * Address all aspects of each question.
- * Use language that is clear, concise, and intelligible to reviewers who are not specialists in your discipline.
- * Be sure to complete each question within the allotted number of words. Applications with answers that exceed the allotted number of words will be discarded. However, you don't need to use the maximum number of words for each question.

15. If you ARE traveling to present: Provide an abstract, including title and number of co-authors, of your presentation. Do not include your own name anywhere in this abstract. Please ensure that this abstract is comprehensible to reviewers outside your discipline. (max. 300 words)

If you are NOT traveling to present: Describe the event to which you will be traveling. (max. 300 words)

16. Describe the impact this travel will have on you professionally and how this event is relevant to your area of study. Explain its perceived importance in your discipline and its broader importance or application. (max. 300 words)

GPSO Travel Awards Application Spring 2012

17. If you ARE traveling to present: Describe your role in the project being presented and the importance of that role at this stage in your career. (max. 300 words)

If you are NOT traveling to present: Indicate the necessity for attendance at this stage in your career. (max. 300 words)

A large, empty text input field with a vertical scrollbar on the right side, intended for the user to provide their response to question 17.

18. Provide and justify your budget for this project. Please list any other sources from which you have applied for funding and the amount of the possible award.

If you are driving, please use IUB's current figures for mileage reimbursement, located at <http://www.indiana.edu/~travel/traveling/travelingbycar.shtml#mileage>.

A large, empty text input field with a vertical scrollbar on the right side, intended for the user to provide their response to question 18.