

TATA STUDY GRANTS 2010

The Tata study grants are designed to facilitate scholarly excellence amongst undergraduate and/or graduate students interested in pursuing research on contemporary India.

The Tata group today is India's largest and most respected business group operating internationally across seven business sectors.

For more information visit www.tata.com.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

Eligibility – Advanced undergraduates and/or graduate students pursuing research on contemporary India. Fellowships will be awarded to students with limited previous experience with India.

January 29, 2010 – All proposals due by close of business.

March 1, 2010 – Fellowships awarded.

September 1, 2010 – All Fellows must complete their travel by this date.

Contact – Prof. Abhijit Basu, 812-855-6654, basu@indiana.edu