HOOSIER FACT!

Bloomington—otherwise known as B-town by locals and fans alike— may be most recognized for being the home of Indiana University, but the town has also been named one of America's Top 50 Adventure Towns by National Geographic Adventure Magazine!

Admissions Update

Welcome to 2011! We have been working hard since the holiday break to process applications and send admissions decisions to students. Although we indicate to students that it can take 4-6 weeks to receive a decision, many students will hear from us much quicker.

We hope to have some information soon in relation to admission standards for freshmen applying for fall 2012. We will be sending you a future update as soon as we have this information. The most up-to-date information will always be available on the Web at admit.indiana.edu/apply/freshmen/standards/index.shtml.

We need your help!

We are re-designing the counselor page at admit.indiana.edu/counselors/index.shtml and need your help! Please tell us what info, links, or other content you would like to see on this page. E-mail your ideas to ktimney@indiana.edu

New Financial Aid Deadline

MARCH 10 DEADLINE

Please note that the priority deadline for applying for aid is March 10. The Office of Financial Aid recommends that students complete the FAFSA as soon after January 1 as possible.

Students can begin the process by visiting the OSFA Web site at <http://www.indiana.edu/~sfa/applying/index.html>.

Don't forget...

- Students can check their status online but please encourage them to be patient. It can take 4-6 weeks for a decision.
- Students who know that IU is the school for them can make it official by paying their enrollment deposit at intentoenroll.indiana.edu/. Please note that the enrollment deposit is non-refundable
- The housing application is at www.rps.indiana.edu/housinggd\_main.cfml. Students can apply for housing BEFORE paying the enrollment deposit.
