

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

International Student Financial Documentation

Office of International Admissions 300 N Jordan Ave, Bloomington, IN 47405 812-855-4306 www.admit.indiana.edu

Please complete this form and attach it to your financial documentation. Fax it to (812) 856-5378 or you can mail it to the address above.

Federal regulations require students to demonstrate that they have current resources available to support themselves during their first year of study in the US. Undergraduate students must submit this document as part of the application requirements. Graduate applicants must submit this document before admission can be finalized. Immigration documents will not be issued for anyone until this document is received along with proper certification of financial ability to provide support. Please complete this form and return it to our office along with your financial documentation in support of your application. For a detailed listing of current estimated expenses for study at IU, please visit http://www.admit.indiana.edu/cost/international.

Students or their sponsors must provide evidence that this amount will be available to meet expenses. Proof of funds usually includes bank statements or scholarship letters. Funds should be liquid. All documents should be current; documents older than one year from the time of the student's intended enrollment cannot be accepted. See Part VI for acceptable forms of proof.
