

Graphic/Animation Artists Needed for Nature Documentary

To be completed Spring 2012

Bring science to life with animations and graphics for an internationally shot documentary about birds, produced by professionals from the Biology and Telecommunications programs. Gain experience working in creative collaboration with others outside your field. Get a film credit and exposure in festivals. Compensation for labor is negotiable. Your work can be integrated into your degree program or done for cash money.

For sample clips visit

juncoproject.org

Email inquires to juncoproject@gmail.com

Application Deadline

October 7th, 2011