

They call me Coach . . .

Tues. Feb. 12 @ 10:30 A.M. in KO 103

Learn what you need to know to be a successful coach - how to work professionally with athletes and parents and consider player safety.

Dan Armstrong, Northwestern High School Athletic Director, will conduct a 30 min. informational meeting to discuss Indiana's requirements for coaches and an online coaching education course. Material will also be available for area first aid and CPR courses. All interested students are invited to attend.

Note: Education students are invited to attend a one hour study session for the Praxis I/II in the Curriculum Lab immediately following this presentation.