

Subject: Library Services for Persons with Disabilities in the IUB Libraries
Category: Public
Source: Undergraduate Library Services
Date Issued: 1/3/00
Policy No. : P2

Rationale

The mission of the Indiana University Bloomington Libraries is: "To support and strengthen teaching, learning, and research by providing the collections, services, and environments that lead to intellectual discovery." The Libraries will make every reasonable effort to provide collections and resources both in the Libraries and on the Internet to people with disabilities. The Libraries are committed to meeting the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Policy

A. Indiana University Bloomington Students

In order to receive full accommodation in the Indiana University Bloomington Libraries, Indiana University Bloomington students must register with the University's Office of Disabled Student Services and Veteran Affairs. The Libraries coordinate with that office to determine appropriate and necessary services.

B. Users not Affiliated With Indiana University Bloomington

Users with disabilities who are not affiliated with Indiana University are welcome to use the collections and selected services of the Indiana University Bloomington Libraries. They may request photocopying and delivery of articles or other materials for a fee through our Document Delivery Services. Fee-based copying services also are available through the Main Library's Customer and Access Services Department.

Definitions/Samples

Services provided by Customer and Access Services Department in the Main Library

- Retrieval of materials from our collections
- Elevator keys for IUB faculty and IU students
(Registered with the Office of Disabled Student Services)
- Wheelchair accessible photocopiers which meet ADA standards

Services coordinated by UGLS in the Main Library

- Onsite access to Adaptive Computer Technology for IU students
(Registered with the Office of Disabled Student Services)
Coordinated with University Information Technology Services
- Campus Libraries-Referral information about accessibility
- Web services

For additional information contact Undergraduate Library Services in the Main Library at:
(812) 855-9857 or e-mail: libugls@indiana.edu

