

STARTALK

Start Talking!

STARTALK 2011 program invites applicants*

TEACHER TRAINING FOR ARABIC AND TURKISH

Online Preparation:	May 16 - June 3
Onsite Training:	June 10 - July 1
Follow Up & Project Finalization:	July 1 – August 20

One-year commitment to create a community-based program

Application deadline: April 28, 2011

**Enrollment is limited to 10 graduate & 5 undergraduate students*

ARE YOU A

- University graduate or undergraduate student of Arabic or Turkish wishing to add a teaching credential to your portfolio?
- OR
- Current or prospective teacher of Arabic or Turkish wishing to learn appropriate teaching methods for young learners in a community setting?

IN THIS PROGRAM YOU WILL

- Participate in an intense residential, professional development academy at the Indiana University, Bloomington School of Education
- Learn how to teach Arabic or Turkish to Pre-K to grade 6 children using appropriate teaching methods for young learners
- Design lessons, materials, & developmentally appropriate assessment
- Gain strong skills in community language advocacy
- Receive credit for two courses (6 credit hours) on language teaching methods & practicum

Tuition, housing, program materials, Certificate of Completion, and $100 upon completion of the program are provided to all accepted applicants.

Funded by STARTALK & the National Foreign Language Center; and in partnership with Department of Literacy, Culture & Language Education of the School of Education, Center for the Study of the Middle East, Department of Near Eastern Languages & Cultures, Center for the Study of Global Change, and Center for Social Studies and International Education.

Details & Application Forms: jonesc@indiana.edu or (812)855-0447
Course Questions: Martha Nyikos, Nyikos@indiana.edu or (812) 856-8272

