

The Office for Women's Affairs Invites Applications for

The Sarah Parke Morrison Society Scholarship
Indiana University Bloomington

2009-2010

Undergraduate women who are enrolled as full-time students, have financial need and are first-generation college students, meaning that neither parent graduated from a college or university are eligible for the Scholarship. The Scholarships will range between $500 and $1000.

An application form accompanied by one letter of recommendation from an IUB professor or advisor, an official IU transcript (one from One Start will be accepted), and an explanation of financial need are required. Application forms are also available at www.iub.edu/~owa

For further information, please contact:

Linda McCammon, Administrative Services Coordinator
Office for Women's Affairs
Memorial Hall East 122
owa@indiana.edu
812.855.3840

Application Deadline: All application materials must be postmarked by November 1, 2009. Send your application and supporting materials to:

The Sarah Parke Morrison Society Scholarship
Office for Women's Affairs
Memorial Hall East 120
1021 East Third Street
Indiana University
Bloomington IN 47405

The mission of the Sarah Parke Morrison Society at the Indiana University Foundation is to increase the philanthropic involvement of women in support of programs and initiatives that primarily affect women at Indiana University.