

RUSSIA-GEORGIA CONFLICT: LEGAL IMPLICATIONS AND AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY

September 23, 2008
12:00-1:30
IMU Dogwood Room

The Russian and East European Institute invites you to attend a forum to survey the recent events in Georgia. IU Professors Nicholas Cullather (History) and Timothy Waters (Law) will discuss the international legal implications of Russian intervention and the background of American foreign policy in the recent conflict.