

Fourth of July Picnic
Bryan Park - Woodlawn Group Shelter

Lunch (with vegetarian options) at 2 pm
Shelter reserved until 9 pm!

Friends of the Workshop and families welcome

Bryan Park has a giant swimming pool with water slide, volleyball and basketball courts, playgrounds, and is dog friendly (dogs must be leashed).

Alcohol is not permitted at the picnic.

Bryan Park Pool is right next to the shelter – entrance is $2.50 for adults and $2 for children. The water slide is $2.

The Woodlawn Shelter is wheelchair accessible and has two grills, plus access to water, electrical outlets and lights.

Attendees are encouraged to bring water bottles to fill at the picnic, to avoid excess waste.

Directions:

The shelter is next to the pool on Woodlawn Ave. one mile south of Ballantine Hall on the southeast border of the park.

Walk or drive straight down Woodlawn Ave. from 3rd St. until you hit the park.

Parking is available across the street and on surrounding residential streets.

Bloomington busses 1S and 7 stop by the west side of the park on Henderson St. Cut straight across the park from Henderson to the shelter.

