

YEARBOOK OF COMPARATIVE AND GENERAL LITERATURE

STYLE SHEET

GENERAL INFORMATION: YCGL publishes scholarly articles on aspects of literature consistent with its mission statement. YCGL is dedicated to the publication of theoretically informed research in literary studies with a comparative, intercultural, or interdisciplinary emphasis. We invite articles on the comparative study of the arts, film studies with a focus on literature, international literary relations, pedagogy, and the theory and practice of translation, as well as on the study of genres and modes, themes and motifs, periods and movements.

Original submissions should be 15-25 double-spaced typewritten pages in length. The author's name should appear only in the cover letter and should be removed from the submission. Once accepted for publication, manuscripts should meet the following criteria:

- Manuscripts should follow MLA Handbook style. Page references should be given in parentheses in the body of the text; do not use footnotes or endnotes for bibliographical information.
- In citing the complete reference in the "Works Cited" section, use the standard format for bibliographies, according to the MLA Handbook. Be sure to include the following information: author, full title, series (if applicable), translators/editors, place of publication and name of the publisher, year of publication, page numbers for journal articles, pieces in anthologies, and book chapters.
- At the end of the manuscript, type your academic affiliation flush with the right margin.
- Send us one paper copy of your article and one disk copy, preferably PC-formatted, in a monospaced font (such as Courier), and left-justified.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the YCGL staff using one of the following addresses:

Yearbook of Comparative and General Literature
923 Ballantine Hall
Indiana University
Bloomington, IN 47405

yearbook@indiana.edu